COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and
that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty
and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and
when they fail to send in their favors
they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

H. E. Oney attended the quarterly meeting Sunday.

Erastus Brooks and wife were visiting
their son George, of Upper Gillmore,
Saturday and Sunday.

Drew, the little son of J. H. Brooks,
had the misfortune to fall and break
both bones in his arm last week. Dr.
Nickell was called to set it, and we hope
he is getting along well.

Grant Lacy, who has just returned from the Hot Springs gave this place a call Sunday. He did not tarry long as he was just starving to clasp the hand of
his mother who was anxiously awaiting his return.

On last Saturday morning, dressed in
our best riding habiliment, we mounted
our favorite pony and started for the quarterly meeting on Lacy creek. On arriving we were greeted by a crowd of friends. After listening to an eloquent sermon delivered by Rev. E. K. Pike, we repaired to the home of "Squire John Rose, who is a well-to-do farmer, living
in a quaint country home, which gives us an idea of peace and repose. After enjoying a social chat with that prince
of good fellows and feasting on the best
of good things, prepared by Mrs. Rose,
we retired to our room to lose ourselves
in the land of nod and dream of the morrow. The next morning being Sunday, "the golden clasp of the week," we
were up with the morning's first light.
Eating a steaming breakfast, we again started for the church. On reaching our destination we were again greeted by a
multitude of friends and school mates,
which made us feel as though we were back in school again. After listening to an excellent sermon by Rev. Ragan and
eating a hearty dinner, (for we had dinner
on the ground,) prepared by the good
people of Lacy creek, we started home
in company with Uncle Harry and Aunt Nancy Swango. On reaching that dear
old place we were very much fatigued.
After a much needed rest we summed it
all up that we had visited an almost Eveless eden, and felt that it was good
to be there.

LANE LILIES.

The oat crop is tolerably good in this section.

Geo. W. King sold one day of last week a bunch of hogs to a stock buyer
of Maytown.

Fishing has been the sport of some of our boys who have been so lucky as to
"get out of the weeds" this week.

John D. Proffitt, son of Dr. Ira Proffitt,
of Devils creek, Ky., died at his father's
home not many days ago with flux.

Owing to the many heavy rains recently, most of the farmers here are somewhat behind with their work in their crops.

As no one keeps you posted with the news of this place, I desire admittance
of a few facts in the dear old HERALD
once in awhile.

There are a few cases of flux here
among us, and as there has been such a change of weather recently, it is supposed that the disease will soon reach
every home in the neighborhood.

Taylor Sewell went to Daysboro Saturday to see some folks, he didn't tell
us who, and from there to Lacy's creek
on Sunday to the quarterly meeting. He reports that the trip was beneficial to
him in every respect.

of their cousins, Misses Maud and Artie Dye, at this place Saturday and Sun-

did not find any berries, but found plenty of flowers and had a nice time.

Less, of Montgomery, were the pleasant
guests of Miss Mina Nickell at this place
Saturday and Sunday night, and took in the big meeting at Rose chapel on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ova Swango, of Hazel
Green, took dinner with John Childers
and wife Monday. They were en route home from Valeria where they have been visiting Mrs. Swango's mother, Mrs.
Williams, the past week.

Sunday being Mrs. Jane Eaton's birthday, Mrs. Meeks gave her a pleasant surprise by preparing a nice dinner for her
in honor of her birthday. We did not learn the names of those who were there,
but the table was loaded with nice things,
and all went away feeling it was good to be there. May Mrs. Eaton live to enjoy
many more such happy birthdays is the
wish of ye scribe.

MOUNTAIN TIMBER KING.

The Remarkable Business Success of
Floyd Day.

In its "Current Topics Club" department the Chicago Record-Herald, under
the head, "The Opportunity and the Man," prints a lengthy pen picture of
Floyd Day, of Jackson, Ky., the timber
king of the mountains. Concerning the
man the article says:

Forty-six years of age, in the quarter
of a century that has elapsed since he began business for himself, on a borrowed
capital of $50, he has accumulated a large fortune. Thousands of families are dependent on him for a living; he owns
outright between 10,000 and 15,000 acres
of timber land in the mountains, and his men operate over tracts aggregating between 40,000 and 50,000 acres. A thousand men are busy in his log camps, 500
more find regular employment in his mills. The scope of his business reaches
through a dozen counties; his logs come
from the headwaters of the Kentucky
river and travel to Jackson, or 100 miles
farther down, following the windings of the stream to Beattyville. He owns a dozen stores scattered in all parts of the mountain district and a large wholesale house at Jackson. His mills working at full capacity the year round could cut almost 1,000,000,000 feet of lumber. The Kentucky and the Red River and the Lexington & Eastern railroad cars deliver to him 150,000 to 175,000 logs a
year, representing between 35,000,000
and 50,000,000 feet of lumber. He sends
to the great railroads of the country between 250,000 and 300,000 ties annually.
His stave mills produce 1,500,000 staves
each year. It would take a train of 200
to 250 cars to haul to market the tan-
bark that is stripped by his men each
year.

The business of Mr. Day and his partner, Jas. Swann, of New York, is incorporated under the name of the Clay City
Lumber & Stave Co. Under the control
of this company are the mills at Clay
City, Beattyville and Natural Bridge.
At Jackson, the terminus of the Lexington & Eastern railway, are located the
mills under the control of the Day

Brothers' Lumber Co., and at Torrent
are the portable mills of Day & Congle-
ton. All these mills are along the line
of the Lexington & Eastern railway,
which, with Lexington as a terminus,
penetrates a hundred miles into the
mountain regions of Southern Kentucky.
Floyd Day, the brain and nerve force
of these great business interests, is one
of the most kindly, retiring, unobtrusive men in the district in which he lives. Nearly six feet in height, with brown hair and eyes, a nose rather long
and thin, drooping brown mustache, and
a complexion almost as brown, deliberate
in movement and speaking, modest almost to a fault, he would never be picked
out in a crowd as one capable of directing such an extensive business. His success has taken away none of his kindly disposition, and he is as accessible to his
humblest logger as he is to city dealer
who wishes to purchase a large consignment
of dressed or rough lumber. Mr.
Day has been properly called "the father
of the mountains," in that he gives each
of his employees his personal attention.
The simple people of the more remote
districts see him during his annual rounds, tell him their difficulties and follow his advice. Business in the mountains has to be conducted on a paternal
basis that would cause astonishment in
the large cities. Every year Mr. Day
sets aside a certain sum for the profit
and loss account, which represents the amount that he will practically give away to the hundreds of men through
the counties of the district in which he operates mills.

Mr. Day was born on Frozen creek,
Breathitt county, December 18, 1854,
being one of a family of nine, five brothers and four sisters. William Day, his father, was one of the most prosperous
men of the section. Floyd received the common school education of the county
and nothing more. When about twenty years of age he began work for himself.
His father's logging business, however,
soon needed his help, and he was made
superintendent of it, serving three years
in that capacity. During this time he made his business venture. Borrowing
$50 to make a first payment, he bought
between 300,000 and 400,000 feet of poplar trees. On this, his first venture, he cleared $500.

ordinance requiring railroad companies
doing business in the city of Shelbyville

pealed to the Circuit Court, and the
judgment of the lower court was affirmed. Then the company prayed an appeal to the Court of Appeals.

Election Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1901.

SOME TIME ago we advocated the erection of an electric plant here at Hazel Green and the operation of a line of electric cars to Sam Henry Wilson's, five miles away and the nearest point at which we can connect with the Ohio and Kentucky railway, and invited our citizens to give their view of the matter through our columns. Up to the present time we have heard from no one on the subject and the railroad is rapidly nearing completion. It is a matter of too much moment to ignore and we do hope some of our citizens will see the importance of it and subscribe to the enterprise. If we can raise $10,000 toward starting the plant outside capital can be secured to erect the plant and equip and operate the line of electric cars. Its value to Hazel Green is absolutely inestimable. Hazel Green would thus be the distributing point for freights for Maytown, Ezel, Grassy Creek, and many country stores, while the citizens of those places and the intermediate country would come to Hazel Green and avail of the electric cars to reach the railroad. Such an enterprise in connection with our new $10,000 academy would make our town an ideal place of residence, and the sooner the enterprise is inaugurated the better for our town. Hazel Green already has some celebrity as a health resort and with the facilities a trolley car line would afford 10,000 to 20,000 would visit us annually to avail of the mineral waters here. Blindness to the benefits now in reach of us is actually almost criminal. For your own sake, for the sake of your people and for the sake of posterity, open your eyes to this opportunity. A Klondike goldmine or Beaumont oil gusher don't begin to offer the inducements for profitable investment a trolley car line here does.

We thought that Roosevelt had more originality. To go to Colorado again in order to escape from the obscurity of his position shows a lamentable dearth of imagination.

THE young couple that killed themselves to rebuke their stern parents succeeded all right, but they will never have the satisfaction of learning of their success.

The Great Northwest's First White Child.

One of the most remarkable proofs of the amazing growth of that vast region of our country commonly called the Northwest, with its numerous sisterhood of states and its population of more than seven million people, is the fact that it is only a little more than eighty years since the first white baby was born there. The child was a girl, the daughter of a regular army officer, and she is still living. A fascinating account of her eventful life, the early years of which were spent among soldiers and savages, will appear in an early issue of The Ladies' Home Journal.

Dr. Taulbee requests us to say that all who are indebted to him must come up and pay him at once. He needs the money and has indulged them just as long as he can. If they don't pay him and pay p. d. q. he will put the accounts in the hand of an attorney for collection, and they'll have to pay costs. He will take any kind of stock or they can make settlement of the amount with any of his creditors. He wants to pay his debts and if they will help him do that it will be satisfactory.

J. T. Day has the most attractive and complete line of ladies' dress goods ever opened up in Hazel Green. Among the many novelties are plain and fancy silk finished satines, fancy colors dotted Swiss muslin, Aristo and Castilian Batiste, fancy Manilla cords, plain and fancy lawns, Primula Dimity, superb organdis. Every variety of shades and colors in cashmere and henriettas, plain and figured India linens, plain and fancy duck, etc.

We understand an epidemic of flux prevails at Campton and other nearby points. With due respect to the medical fraternity we make the suggestion that Vitae-Ore be tried among the afflicted ones. It has proved to be almost infallible as a remedy for this dread disease, and physicians who have used it recommend it. A $1.00 package makes 500 doses.

The Masons and Odd Fellows had a royal time at Torrent on Monday. It is estimated that over 1,000 people were in attendance, and everybody enjoyed the occasion. John B. Davis and little daughter, Mytie, attended from this place.

It will interest you to examine the nice stock of ladies' imperial silk and linen, plain corded and enameled neck wear at J. T. Day's store. Ladies call in and see them.

Vitae-Ore will relieve you of all aches and pains. Agents wanted. Apply to or address, with stamp, Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.

Mollie Salley, of Borders, Menefee county, died on Monday night of consumption, aged about 25 years.

A surgical operation is not necessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve saves all that expense and never fails. Beware of counterfeits. H. F. PIERATT.

For the next 90 days I will sell for less than original cost a complete line of ladies' slippers. J. T. DAY.

If you went to buy a lion whelp you would not accept a kitten as a substitute, even if the dealer urges you.

Now, don't accept a substitute for

LION COFFEE.

It is bound to turn out a common yellow cat, with none of the strength of the lion.

You want LION COFFEE because it is LION COFFEE.

If, on the other hand, you want a coffee which, in order to hide imperfections, is "highly polished" with eggs and other preparations, then do not buy

LION COFFEE.

If LION COFFEE were common, ordinary stuff, coffee drinkers would not insist on having it. It is used in millions of homes because it is the best coffee in the world for the price. If you doubt this, take a single package home and try it.

In every package of LION COFFEE you will find a fully illustrated and descriptive list. No housekeeper, in fact, no woman, man, boy or girl will fail to find in the list some article which will contribute to their happiness, comfort and convenience, and which they may have by simply cutting out a certain number of Lion Heads from the wrappers of our one pound sealed packages (which is the only form in which this excellent coffee is sold).

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia.
It makes life miserable.
Its sufferers eat not because they want to,
—but simply because they must.
They know they are irritable and fretful;
but they cannot be otherwise.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, an uneasy feeling of puffiness, headache, heartburn and what not.

The effectual remedy, proved by permanent cures of thousands of severe cases, is

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Hood's Pills are the best cathartic.

THE HERALD.

J. M. Swango, of Stillwater, was in town Monday.

There were 21 applicants for certificates to teach before the examining board at Campton Friday and Saturday.

Dr. J. A. Taulbee reports the birth of a boy to the wife of Thos. B. May, of the State road fork, on Wednesday night of last week.

County Judge Taylor and the county attorney, of Menefee, were called to Rothwell on Monday to hold a trial over Sam Amyx.

The post-painter has returned from Elsberry Little's, of Gillmore, after painting his residence. He is at Daysboro this week.

Grant Lacy, who has been at Hot Springs, Ark., for the past two months, returned home Saturday, but the trip did not appreciably improve him.

Misses Minnie and Allie Adams, and Minnie Caskey, three handsome little girls, were pleasant callers at THE HERALD office Tuesday evening.

Good roads are the best investments the farmer can make. The cost of hauling his products to market can be easily cut half in two by the use of modern roads.

J. T. Day has just completed invoice of his immense stock of goods, and will for the next 90 days close out all light weight—good straw goods and summer wear without regard to original cost.

AMERICA'S Greatest Medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it possesses unequalled curative powers and its record of cures is GREATEST.

Kentucky was a pioneer state in the construction of good roads, and some of the turnpikes built fifty and seventy-five years ago are still models of road engineering.

SAM WILSON.

John Wilson, of Mt. Sterling, was killed Sunday night at that place. He jumped from a train of cars before it stopped, and fell, hitting his head against something and fracturing his skull, from which he died Monday morning at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Meek and daughter, who have been the guests of Mrs. Ellen Kash for some time past, left on Monday for Catlettsburg, where they will visit her father-in-law, Rev. Zephaniah Meeks, editor of the Central Methodist.

James Brown, of Portsmouth, Va., over 90 years of age suffered for years with a bad sore on his face. Physicians could not help him. Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently.
H. F. PIERATT.

A party was given on Friday evening last by Misses Nellie and Mattie Evans, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Evans, in honor of Miss Hallie Thomas, of Beattyville, cousin of the young ladies, and was most thoroughly enjoyed by all the little folks in attendance.

Rev. E. K. Pike will preach at the M. E. church, south, at this place on Sunday next at 11 o'clock a. m. On the third Sunday in July he will begin a tent meeting at Pinhook, (also known as Caney and Walnut Grove) and will be assisted by four or five other ministers.

SOME SUMMER SCENES.

BY T. C. EASTERLING.

The orchard on the hillside,
The berry-briars on the hills,
The songs for a season hushed
In the dried-up little rills.

The woodland in the distance,
The river that flows between
Like a waving, silver ribbon,
Is another peaceful scene.

The house that hides its wrinkles
In a bonnet of ivy-green,
The well with its moss-covered walls,
Are scars that summer must screen.

The garden with its old-time sweetness,
The roses with their sweet perfume,
The honeysuckle in the hollows,
Are some of the memories of June.

The cliffs on the bank of the river
That frown upon time and decay
Look down upon us, "Patience—
There's rest at the end of the way."

At a meeting of the National C. W. B. M. held at Indianapolis on June 5th, the following advisory board was appointed, the local members of which are: G. B. Swango, chairman; J. M. Waldeck, John M. Rose, John B. Davis and W. O. Mize. The non-resident members are: B. W. Trimble, Mt. Sterling; W. W. McGuire, West Liberty; Floyd Day, Jackson; S. S. Combs, Campton; D. D. Sublett, Salyersville and Dr. Bays, Paintsville. The entire committee will meet every commencement week and the local part of it will meet on Saturday before the first Wednesday in each month.

Didn't Marry for Money.

The Boston man, who lately married a sickly rich young woman, is happy now, for he got Dr. King's New Life Pills, which restored her to perfect health. Infallible for Jaundice, Biliousness, Malaria, Fever and Ague and Liver and Stomach troubles. Gentle but effective. Only 25c at J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Son, Campton, drug stores.

James F. Pieratt, who removed to Brown's Valley, California, from Ezel, Ky., five years ago last fall, died at the former place on the 31st day of May, aged 63 years. He was the father of John S., Jeff and Louis Pieratt, and three daughters, Mrs. Elma Hays, Mrs. Lee Perry and Mrs. Dr. Silas Kash. John S. lives on the Murphy fork, and Mrs. Kash at Burdette, Mo. The other four children live at Brown's Valley, Calif. Mr. Pieratt survived his wife just 26 days, she having departed this life on May 5th, of the present year.

Rev. J. J. Dickey was taken suddenly sick with flux while attending conference at Jackson last week and returned to his home at Campton on Friday night. He has shaved and the absence of his patrician beard gives him a peculiar appearance, indeed, after having worn it for many years. "The oldest inhabitant" of the mountains never saw him without his whiskers. His wife persuaded him to this, and we'll bet a jug of buttermilk she now regrets the doing so.

"The Doctors told me my cough was incurable: One Minute Cough Cure made me a well man." Norris Silver, North Stratford, N. H.—Because you've not found relief from a stubborn cough, don't despair. One Minute Cough Cure has cured thousands and it will cure you. Safe and sure.
H. F. PIERATT.

THE HERALD for 12 months and $5.00 for $1.00 is a great big bargain awaiting the man who can figure the total vote of Ohio, Massachusetts and Iowa. See "Try Your Luck" on last page for particulars.

Kentucky has some of the finest turnpikes in the world, but President Moore, of the national good roads association, says he hasn't seen a single modern dirt road in the state.

Russell-Graham.

E. M. Russell (Dick) and Miss Rebecca Graham were united in marriage on Friday evening, the 21st inst., in the parlor of the Day House, by Elder Wm. H. Cord, and on Saturday went to Stillwater to spend a few days of the honeymoon. The groom is a mill-right by profession and a genius by nature. He is sober, industrious and a hard working man, who has the confidence of all who know him. For some years past he has been the miller at the Day roller mill at this place, and during that time has turned out some of the finest flour ever seen in this section. The bride is the eldest daughter of N. B. Graham and wife, whose maiden name was Hannah Lacy, a sister of his present wife, and is one among the prettiest girls of Wolfe county. Modest, retiring, gentle and lady-like in deportment, she is loved by all who know her, and Dick Russell, in the matrimonial lottery has certainly drawn a prize that can easily be denominated "capital." As they stood upon the floor in presence of the officiating minister the verdict of all who saw them was that it was the handsomest couple that had been married here in quite a while. The boys of the town serenaded the happy young couple ala chivari, and the whistle of the mill, of which he is the active manager, was blown for an hour, more or less, to celebrate the event. THE HERALD joins the multitude in wishing this couple a long, happy and prosperous career.

Pains in Joints.

SUDBURY, ONT., CAN., 2-4-98.

I have a little grandchild, seven years old who, about two years ago was taken with Pains in all her joints, so bad they had to carry her around on pillows to ease the pain. She could not eat, was sleepy and drowsy all the time, was white as a sheet and her joints were so swollen that caution had to be used in moving her. I told my daughter that I was no doctor but I knew that if Vitae-Ore did no good it would at least do no harm, so on my recommendation she took a package and in one week the child was going to school. There has been no return of the trouble since. If people only knew half as much about Vitae-Ore as her mother there would not be a house in Canada without Vitae-Ore always on hand for an emergency, for my part I could not get along without it. My eyes have been troubling me for about six years and now after using Vitae-Ore they are wonderfully improved. For Sore Throat and Burns Vitae-Ore cannot be beat. It is a God-send.
MRS. THOMAS KENNEDY.

Sold by SPENCER COOPER, Hazel Green, Ky., exclusive agent for Breathitt, Magoffin, Morgan, Menefee and Wolfe counties. $1.00 package makes 1 quart of Elixir.

Eczema, salt rheum, tetter, chafing, ivy poisoning and all skin tortures quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The certain pile cure.
H. F. PIERATT.

Expensive Pets.

Arbury Swango, who lives a mile below town on the State road has four young red foxes. On Friday night they escaped and killed 50 frying chickens and four young gosling, which they buried in the grass and weeds in the yard. On a previous occasion they got out one night and killed 30, but they were not so near the frying state as the latter, and he did not feel their loss so much.

"For the Sake of Fun, Mischief is Done." A vast amount of mischief is done, too, because people neglect to keep their blood pure. This mischief, fortunately, may be undone by the faithful use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.
Hood's Pills cure liver ills. Non-irritating.

Judge Geo. Wheeler surveyed the ground for the site for the new academy and dormitory on Saturday, and laid out four new streets for the town, viz: College avenue runs from State road to lands of J. M. Rose, where another new street called Carrie avenue was laid out, and runs to Water street; then a street from Rose & Wheeler's shop intersects Carrie avenue. Broadway, the street on which the college is now located, was extended to college avenue.

You will be surprised when you visit J. T. Day's store and examine the goods displayed on his bargain counters. If you buy nothing it will be gratifying to know your neighbors are getting such cheap goods.

Prof. Cord, accompanied by his nephew, Roy Neal, left for Torrent Tuesday, where he took the train for Lexington, to be present at a meeting of the State C. W. B. M. held on Wednesday.

Dyspeptics cannot be long lived, because to live requires nourishment. Food is not nourishing until it is digested. A disordered stomach cannot digest food, it must have assistance. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests all kinds of food without aid from the stomach, allowing it to rest and regain its natural functions. Its elements are exactly the same as the natural digestive fluids and it simply can't help but do you good. H. F. PIERATT.

CURRENT EVENTS.

Why do red headed girls wear pink shirt waists? They do! Just watch and see if they don't.

Mr. Grosvenor says he didn't say it. This leaves Chauncey Depew in sole possession of the third term idea.

Of course, John Bull holds the record in cricket. What good American cares for such a fool game!

Can't the powers compromise that Chinese indemnity on some washee-washee on the installment plan?

Dowie should have copyrighted his discovery that he is Elijah. A southern negro is now claiming to be the same thing.

But, after all didn't the Hon. "Hurry" Heath also run into the unwritten law when he named Mr. Hanna for the presidency.

Senator Elkins says that the senate is poor hatching ground for presidents. Still the vice-president isn't exactly in the senate, so to speak.

The coalmen have raised the price 25 cents a ton and are moving it up 10 cents more each month. Next winter is going to be cold, we suppose.

Despite the way on which the "Independence" was crowded off the course we may still console ourselves that there's many a slip betwixt cup and Lip-ton.

We suppose that Lord Salisbury thinks that Great Britain has gained enormously in prestige by the recent surrender of a lot of her crack troops to the Boers.

The Boers have done it again. After being utterly exterminated, they have come to sufficiently to capture 200 British, lots of stores and ammunition and two machine guns.

Some one has scored a failure in trying to interview Grover on the third term question. Some body should have given him a steer that Grover was strongly opposed even to second terms before his first election.

Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, says the question is now "Should the Constitution follow the flag?" in place of "Does it follow it?" The next election, he says, will be fought on that issue.

It is somewhat too unkind to insinuate, as one of our contemporaries does, that Admiral Sampson must be a Christian Scientist, because he destroyed the Spanish fleet, if at all, by "absent treatment."

Director Merriam of the census recently directed that his 3,000 clerks should all draw their salary after the close of business hours. Meanwhile he had his own brought to him by a clerk during office hours.

Mr. Evans says that he doesn't expect to retire from the office of pension commissioner, but Congressman Peters, of Kansas, is now on the way to Washington expecting to be named in Mr. Evans' place. Some one is sure to be disappointed—but you can wager it won't be the pension sharks.

A Terrible Explosion

"Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. "The best doctors couldn't heal the running sore that followed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve entirely cured her." Infalible for cuts, sores, boils, bruises, skin disease and piles. 25c at J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, and S. S. Combs & Son, Campton.

Change of Schedule.

Effective June 30, 1901, there will be a slight change in time of Lexington & Eastern time-table, in order to give its patrons better service. Beginning with the above dates Nos. 1 and 3 will make connections at L. & E. Junction with the Chesapeake & Ohio R. R. for Mt. Sterling and Ashland. The morning train will leave Lexington at 7:40 instead of 7:45, and the train from Jackson will reach Lexington at 10:10 a. m., heretofore 10:15. Yours truly, T. R. MORGAN, Sol. Pass. Agt.

The bilious, tired, nervous man cannot successfully compete with his healthy rival. DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous pills for constipation, will remove the cause of your troubles. H. F. PIERATT.

For a man who "doesn't appreciate American newspapers," Mr. Pearson, of London, publishes the champion weekly of the world. Nine-tenths of its matter is "lifted" outright from American comic papers.

The latest comes from a distinguished republican who asserts that "The Cuban desire for independence is a genuine case of nervous disease." That's about what George III said of the American colonies.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders never cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, and S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores. Only 50 cts.

Minister Leishman thinks that the Sultan is about to pay up. To turn a pessimist into the most confirmed optimist, a few months in the United States legation at Constantinople seems to be all that is necessary.

The fifteenth annual session of the Kentucky Chautauqua will be held at Woodland Park, Lexington, Ky., June 26 to July 5. A splendid program has been arranged, that will surpass any yet given. Some of the most notable lecturers and entertainers in America have been engaged. A great musical program will be presented, and many new and special features. The detailed program will be mailed to any address, upon application to Chas. Scott, Business Manager, Lexington, Ky. td.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and
that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty
and we want to say that henceforth they
will not receive papers except for the
week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and
when they fail to send in their favors
they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

H. E. Oney attended the quarterly
meeting Sunday.

Erastus Brooks and wife were visiting
their son George, of Upper Gillmore,
Saturday and Sunday.

Drew, the little son of J. H. Brooks,
had the misfortune to fall and break
both bones in his arm last week. Dr.
Nickell was called to set it, and we hope
he is getting along well.

Grant Lacy, who has just returned
from the Hot Springs gave this place a
call Sunday. He did not tarry long as he was just starving to clasp the hand of
his return.

On last Saturday morning, dressed in
our best riding habiliment, we mounted
our favorite pony and started for the
quarterly meeting on Lacy creek. On arriving we were greeted by a crowd of
friends. After listening to an eloquent
sermon delivered by Rev. E. K. Pike, we
repaired to the home of "Squire John
Rose, who is a well-to-do farmer, living
in a quaint country home, which gives
enjoying a social chat with that prince
of good fellows and feasting on the best
of good things, prepared by Mrs. Rose,
we retired to our room to lose ourselves
in the land of nod and dream of the
morrow. The next morning being Sunday, "the golden clasp of the week," we
were up with the morning's first light.
Eating a steaming breakfast, we again
started for the church. On reaching our destination we were again greeted by a
multitude of friends and school mates,
which made us feel as though we were
back in school again. After listening to an excellent sermon by Rev. Ragan and
eating a hearty dinner, (for we had dinner
on the ground,) prepared by the good
people of Lacy creek, we started home
in company with Uncle Harry and Aunt
Nancy Swango. On reaching that dear
old place we were very much fatigued.
After a much needed rest we summed it
all up that we had visited an almost Eveless eden, and felt that it was good
to be there.

LANE LILIES.

The oat crop is tolerably good in this
section.

Geo. W. King sold one day of last week a bunch of hogs to a stock buyer
of Maytown.

Fishing has been the sport of some of
our boys who have been so lucky as to
"get out of the weeds" this week.

John D. Proffitt, son of Dr. Ira Proffitt,
of Devils creek, Ky., died at his father's
home not many days ago with flux.

Owing to the many heavy rains recently, most of the farmers here are somewhat behind with their work in their
crops.

As no one keeps you posted with the
news of this place, I desire admittance
of a few facts in the dear old HERALD
once in awhile.

There are a few cases of flux here
among us, and as there has been such a change of weather recently, it is supposed that the disease will soon reach
every home in the neighborhood.

Taylor Sewell went to Daysboro Saturday to see some folks, he didn't tell
us who, and from there to Lacy's creek
on Sunday to the quarterly meeting. He reports that the trip was beneficial to
him in every respect.

guests of Miss Mina Nickell at this place
Saturday and Sunday night, and took

Green, took dinner with John Childers
and wife Monday. They were en route
home from Valeria where they have been
visiting Mrs. Swango's mother, Mrs.
Williams, the past week.

Sunday being Mrs. Jane Eaton's birth-
day, Mrs. Meeks gave her a pleasant surprise by preparing a nice dinner for her
in honor of her birthday. We did not
learn the names of those who were there,
but the table was loaded with nice things,
and all went away feeling it was good to
be there. May Mrs. Eaton live to enjoy
many more such happy birthdays is the
wish of ye scribe.

The Remarkable Business Success of
Floyd Day.

In its "Current Topics Club" department the Chicago Record-Herald, under
the head, "The Opportunity and the Man," prints a lengthy pen picture of
Floyd Day, of Jackson, Ky., the timber
king of the mountains. Concerning the
man the article says:

Forty-six years of age, in the quarter
of a century that has elapsed since he began business for himself, on a borrowed
capital of $50, he has accumulated a large
fortune. Thousands of families are dependent on him for a living; he owns
outright between 10,000 and 15,000 acres
of timber land in the mountains, and his
men operate over tracts aggregating between 40,000 and 50,000 acres. A thousand men are busy in his log camps, 500
more find regular employment in his
mills. The scope of his business reaches
through a dozen counties; his logs come
from the headwaters of the Kentucky
river and travel to Jackson, or 100 miles
farther down, following the windings of
the stream to Beattyville. He owns a dozen stores scattered in all parts of the
mountain district and a large wholesale
house at Jackson. His mills working at
full capacity the year round could cut
almost 1,000,000,000 feet of lumber. The Kentucky and the Red River and the
Lexington & Eastern railroad cars deliver to him 150,000 to 175,000 logs a
year, representing between 35,000,000
and 50,000,000 feet of lumber. He sends
to the great railroads of the country between 250,000 and 300,000 ties annually.
His stave mills produce 1,500,000 staves
each year. It would take a train of 200
to 250 cars to haul to market the tan-
bark that is stripped by his men each
year.

The business of Mr. Day and his partner, Jas. Swann, of New York, is incorporated under the name of the Clay City
Lumber & Stave Co. Under the control
of this company are the mills at Clay
City, Beattyville and Natural Bridge.
At Jackson, the terminus of the Lexington & Eastern railway, are located the
mills under the control of the Day

Brothers' Lumber Co., and at Torrent
are the portable mills of Day & Congle-
ton. All these mills are along the line
of the Lexington & Eastern railway,
which, with Lexington as a terminus,
penetrates a hundred miles into the
mountain regions of Southern Kentucky.
Floyd Day, the brain and nerve force
of these great business interests, is one
of the most kindly, retiring, unobtru-
sive men in the district in which he lives. Nearly six feet in height, with
brown hair and eyes, a nose rather long
and thin, drooping brown mustache, and
a complexion almost as brown, deliberate
in movement and speaking, modest al-
most to a fault, he would never be picked
out in a crowd as one capable of direct-
ing such an extensive business. His success has taken away none of his kindly
disposition, and he is as accessible to his
humblest logger as he is to city dealer
who wishes to purchase a large consignment
of dressed or rough lumber. Mr.
Day has been properly called "the father
of the mountains," in that he gives each
of his employees his personal attention.
The simple people of the more remote
districts see him during his annual
rounds, tell him their difficulties and
follow his advice. Business in the mountains has to be conducted on a paternal
basis that would cause astonishment in
the large cities. Every year Mr. Day
sets aside a certain sum for the profit
and loss account, which represents the
amount that he will practically give
away to the hundreds of men through
the counties of the district in which he
operates mills.

Mr. Day was born on Frozen creek,
Breathitt county, December 18, 1854,
being one of a family of nine, five brothers and four sisters. William Day, his father, was one of the most prosperous
men of the section. Floyd received the
common school education of the county
and nothing more. When about twenty
years of age he began work for himself.
His father's logging business, however,
soon needed his help, and he was made
superintendent of it, serving three years
in that capacity. During this time he
made his business venture. Borrowing
$50 to make a first payment, he bought
between 300,000 and 400,000 feet of poplar trees. On this, his first venture, he cleared $500.

of the Bowling Green public library.

The city of Shelbyville has passed an ordinance requiring railroad companies
doing business in the city of Shelbyville
to pay an annual tax of $25. Two of the companies refused to pay this tax and were tried in the Police Court, where judgment went against them. They appealed to the Circuit Court, and the
judgment of the lower court was affir-
med. Then the company prayed an appeal to the Court of Appeals.

Election Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1901.

SOME TIME ago we advocated the erection of an electric plant here at Hazel Green and the operation of a line of electric cars to Sam Henry Wilson's, five miles away and the nearest point at which we can connect with the Ohio and Kentucky railway, and invited our citizens to give their view of the matter through our columns. Up to the present time we have heard from no one on the subject and the railroad is rapidly nearing completion. It is a matter of too much moment to ignore and we do hope some of our citizens will see the importance of it and subscribe to the enterprise. If we can raise $10,000 toward starting the plant outside capital can be secured to erect the plant and equip and operate the line of electric cars. Its value to Hazel Green is absolutely inestimable. Hazel Green would thus be the distributing point for freights for Maytown, Ezel, Grassy Creek, and many country stores, while the citizens of those places and the intermediate country would come to Hazel Green and avail of the electric cars to reach the railroad. Such an enterprise in connection with our new $10,000 academy would make our town an ideal place of residence, and the sooner the enterprise is inaugurated the better for our town. Hazel Green already has some celebrity as a health resort and with the facilities a trolley car line would afford 10,000 to 20,000 would visit us annually to avail of the mineral waters here. Blindness to the benefits now in reach of us is actually almost criminal. For your own sake, for the sake of your people and for the sake of posterity, open your eyes to this opportunity. A Klondike goldmine or Beaumont oil gusher don't begin to offer the inducements for profitable investment a trolley car line here does.

We thought that Roosevelt had more originality. To go to Colorado again in order to escape from the obscurity of his position shows a lamentable dearth of imagination.

THE young couple that killed themselves to rebuke their stern parents succeeded all right, but they will never have the satisfaction of learning of their success.

The Great Northwest's First White Child.

One of the most remarkable proofs of the amazing growth of that vast region of our country commonly called the Northwest, with its numerous sisterhood of states and its population of more than seven million people, is the fact that it is only a little more than eighty years since the first white baby was born there. The child was a girl, the daughter of a regular army officer, and she is still living. A fascinating account of her eventful life, the early years of which were spent among soldiers and savages, will appear in an early issue of The Ladies' Home Journal.

Dr. Taulbee requests us to say that all who are indebted to him must come up and pay him at once. He needs the money and has indulged them just as long as he can. If they don't pay him and pay p. d. q. he will put the accounts in the hand of an attorney for collection, and they'll have to pay costs. He will take any kind of stock or they can make settlement of the amount with any of his creditors. He wants to pay his debts and if they will help him do that it will be satisfactory.

J. T. Day has the most attractive and complete line of ladies' dress goods ever opened up in Hazel Green. Among the many novelties are plain and fancy silk finished satines, fancy colors dotted Swiss muslin, Aristo and Castilian Batiste, fancy Manilla cords, plain and fancy lawns, Primula Dimity, superb organdis. Every variety of shades and colors in cashmere and henriettas, plain and figured India linens, plain and fancy duck, etc.

We understand an epidemic of flux prevails at Campton and other nearby points. With due respect to the medical fraternity we make the suggestion that Vitae-Ore be tried among the afflicted ones. It has proved to be almost infallible as a remedy for this dread disease, and physicians who have used it recommend it. A $1.00 package makes 500 doses.

The Masons and Odd Fellows had a royal time at Torrent on Monday. It is estimated that over 1,000 people were in attendance, and everybody enjoyed the occasion. John B. Davis and little daughter, Mytie, attended from this place.

It will interest you to examine the nice stock of ladies' imperial silk and linen, plain corded and enameled neck wear at J. T. Day's store. Ladies call in and see them.

Vitae-Ore will relieve you of all aches and pains. Agents wanted. Apply to or address, with stamp, Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.

Mollie Salley, of Borders, Menefee county, died on Monday night of consumption, aged about 25 years.

A surgical operation is not necessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve saves all that expense and never fails. Beware of counterfeits. H. F. PIERATT.

For the next 90 days I will sell for less than original cost a complete line of ladies' slippers. J. T. DAY.

LION COFFEE

A LUXURY WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL!

Watch our next advertisement.

If you went to buy a lion whelp you would not accept a kitten as a substitute, even if the dealer urges you.

Now, don't accept a substitute for

LION COFFEE.

It is bound to turn out a common yellow cat, with none of the strength of the lion.

You want LION COFFEE because it is LION COFFEE.

If, on the other hand, you want a coffee which, in order to hide imperfections, is "highly polished" with eggs and other preparations, then do not buy

LION COFFEE.

If LION COFFEE were common, ordinary stuff, coffee drinkers would not insist on having it. It is used in millions of homes because it is the best coffee in the world for the price. If you doubt this, take a single package home and try it.

In every package of LION COFFEE you will find a fully illustrated and descriptive list. No housekeeper, in fact, no woman, man, boy or girl will fail to find in the list some article which will contribute to their happiness, comfort and convenience, and which they may have by simply cutting out a certain number of Lion Heads from the wrappers of our one pound sealed packages (which is the only form in which this excellent coffee is sold).

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia.
It makes life miserable.
Its sufferers eat not because they want to,
—but simply because they must.
They know they are irritable and fretful;
but they cannot be otherwise.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, an uneasy feeling of puffiness, headache, heartburn and what not.

The effectual remedy, proved by permanent cures of thousands of severe cases, is

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Hood's Pills are the best cathartic.

THE HERALD.

J. M. Swango, of Stillwater, was in town Monday.

There were 21 applicants for certificates to teach before the examining board at Campton Friday and Saturday.

Dr. J. A. Taulbee reports the birth of a boy to the wife of Thos. B. May, of the State road fork, on Wednesday night of last week.

County Judge Taylor and the county attorney, of Menefee, were called to Rothwell on Monday to hold a trial over Sam Amynx.

The post-painter has returned from Elsberry Little's, of Gillmore, after painting his residence. He is at Daysboro this week.

Grant Lacy, who has been at Hot Springs, Ark., for the past two months, returned home Saturday, but the trip did not appreciably improve him.

Misses Minnie and Allie Adams, and Minnie Caskey, three handsome little girls, were pleasant callers at THE HERALD office Tuesday evening.

Good roads are the best investments the farmer can make. The cost of hauling his products to market can be easily cut half in two by the use of modern roads.

J. T. Day has just completed invoice of his immense stock of goods, and will for the next 90 days close out all light weight—good straw goods and summer wear without regard to original cost.

AMERICA'S Greatest Medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it possesses unequalled curative powers and its record of cures is GREATEST.

Kentucky was a pioneer state in the construction of good roads, and some of the turnpikes built fifty and seventy-five years ago are still models of road engineering.

SAM WILSON.

John Wilson, of Mt. Sterling, was killed Sunday night at that place. He jumped from a train of cars before it stopped, and fell, hitting his head against something and fracturing his skull, from which he died Monday morning at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Meek and daughter, who have been the guests of Mrs. Ellen Kash for some time past, left on Monday for Catlettsburg, where they will visit her father-in-law, Rev. Zephaniah Meeks, editor of the Central Methodist.

James Brown, of Portsmouth, Va., over 90 years of age suffered for years with a bad sore on his face. Physicians could not help him. Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently.
H. F. PIERATT.

A party was given on Friday evening last by Misses Nellie and Mattie Evans, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Evans, in honor of Miss Hallie Thomas, of Beattyville, cousin of the young ladies, and was most thoroughly enjoyed by all the little folks in attendance.

Rev. E. K. Pike will preach at the M. E. church, south, at this place on Sunday next at 11 o'clock a. m. On the third Sunday in July he will begin a tent meeting at Pinhook, (also known as Caney and Walnut Grove) and will be assisted by four or five other ministers.

SOME SUMMER SCENES.

BY T. C. EASTERLING.

The orchard on the hillside,
The berry-briars on the hills,
The songs for a season hushed
In the dried-up little rills.

The woodland in the distance,
The river that flows between
Like a waving, silver ribbon,
Is another peaceful scene.

The house that hides its wrinkles
In a bonnet of ivy-green,
The well with its moss-covered walls,
Are scars that summer must screen.

The garden with its old-time sweetness,
The roses with their sweet perfume,
The honeysuckle in the hollows,
Are some of the memories of June.

The cliffs on the bank of the river
That frown upon time and decay
Look down upon us, "Patience—
There's rest at the end of the way."

At a meeting of the National C. W. B. M. held at Indianapolis on June 5th, the following advisory board was appointed, the local members of which are: G. B. Swango, chairman; J. M. Waldeck, John M. Rose, John B. Davis and W. O. Mize. The non-resident members are: B. W. Trimble, Mt. Sterling; W. W. McGuire, West Liberty; Floyd Day, Jackson; S. S. Combs, Campton; D. D. Sublett, Salyersville and Dr. Bays, Paintsville. The entire committee will meet every commencement week and the local part of it will meet on Saturday before the first Wednesday in each month.

Didn't Marry for Money.

The Boston man, who lately married a sickly rich young woman, is happy now, for he got Dr. King's New Life Pills, which restored her to perfect health. Infalible for Jaundice, Biliousness, Malaria, Fever and Ague and Liver and Stomach troubles. Gentle but effective. Only 25c at J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Son, Campton, drug stores.

James F. Pieratt, who removed to Brown's Valley, California, from Ezel, Ky., five years ago last fall, died at the former place on the 31st day of May, aged 63 years. He was the father of John S., Jeff and Louis Pieratt, and three daughters, Mrs. Elma Hays, Mrs. Lee Perry and Mrs. Dr. Silas Kash. John S. lives on the Murphy fork, and Mrs. Kash at Burdette, Mo. The other four children live at Brown's Valley, Calif. Mr. Pieratt survived his wife just 26 days, she having departed this life on May 5th, of the present year.

Rev. J. J. Dickey was taken suddenly sick with flux while attending conference at Jackson last week and returned to his home at Campton on Friday night. He has shaved and the absence of his patrician beard gives him a peculiar appearance, indeed, after having worn it for many years. "The oldest inhabitant" of the mountains never saw him without his whiskers. His wife persuaded him to this, and we'll bet a jug of buttermilk she now regrets the doing so.

"The Doctors told me my cough was incurable: One Minute Cough Cure made me a well man." Norris Silver, North Stratford, N. H.—Because you've not found relief from a stubborn cough, don't despair. One Minute Cough Cure has cured thousands and it will cure you. Safe and sure.
H. F. PIERATT.

THE HERALD for 12 months and $5.00 for $1.00 is a great big bargain awaiting the man who can figure the total vote of Ohio, Massachusetts and Iowa. See "Try Your Luck" on last page for particulars.

Kentucky has some of the finest turnpikes in the world, but President Moore, of the national good roads association, says he hasn't seen a single modern dirt road in the state.

Russell-Graham.

E. M. Russell (Dick) and Miss Rebecca Graham were united in marriage on Friday evening, the 21st inst., in the parlor of the Day House, by Elder Wm. H. Cord, and on Saturday went to Stillwater to spend a few days of the honeymoon. The groom is a mill-right by profession and a genius by nature. He is sober, industrious and a hard working man, who has the confidence of all who know him. For some years past he has been the miller at the Day roller mill at this place, and during that time has turned out some of the finest flour ever seen in this section. The bride is the eldest daughter of N. B. Graham and wife, whose maiden name was Hannah Lacy, a sister of his present wife, and is one among the prettiest girls of Wolfe county. Modest, retiring, gentle and lady-like in deportment, she is loved by all who know her, and Dick Russell, in the matrimonial lottery has certainly drawn a prize that can easily be denominated "capital." As they stood upon the floor in presence of the officiating minister the verdict of all who saw them was that it was the handsomest couple that had been married here in quite a while. The boys of the town serenaded the happy young couple ala chivari, and the whistle of the mill, of which he is the active manager, was blown for an hour, more or less, to celebrate the event. THE HERALD joins the multitude in wishing this couple a long, happy and prosperous career.

Pains in Joints.

SUDBURY, ONT., CAN., 2-4-98.

I have a little grandchild, seven years old who, about two years ago was taken with Pains in all her joints, so bad they had to carry her around on pillows to ease the pain. She could not eat, was sleepy and drowsy all the time, was white as a sheet and her joints were so swollen that caution had to be used in moving her. I told my daughter that I was no doctor but I knew that if Vitae-Ore did no good it would at least do no harm, so on my recommendation she took a package and in one week the child was going to school. There has been no return of the trouble since. If people only knew half as much about Vitae-Ore as her mother there would not be a house in Canada without Vitae-Ore always on hand for an emergency, for my part I could not get along without it. My eyes have been troubling me for about six years and now after using Vitae-Ore they are wonderfully improved. For Sore Throat and Burns Vitae-Ore cannot be beat. It is a God-send.
MRS. THOMAS KENNEDY.

Expensive Pets.

Arbury Swango, who lives a mile below town on the State road has four young red foxes. On Friday night they escaped and killed 50 frying chickens and four young gosling, which they buried in the grass and weeds in the yard. On a previous occasion they got out one night and killed 30, but they were not so near the frying state as the latter, and he did not feel their loss so much.

"For the Sake of Fun, Mischief is Done." A vast amount of mischief is done, too, because people neglect to keep their blood pure. This mischief, fortunately, may be undone by the faithful use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.
Hood's Pills cure liver ills. Non-irritating.

Judge Geo. Wheeler surveyed the ground for the site for the new academy and dormitory on Saturday, and laid out four new streets for the town, viz: College avenue runs from State road to lands of J. M. Rose, where another new street called Carrie avenue was laid out, and runs to Water street; then a street from Rose & Wheeler's shop intersects Carrie avenue. Broadway, the street on which the college is now located, was extended to college avenue.

You will be surprised when you visit J. T. Day's store and examine the goods displayed on his bargain counters. If you buy nothing it will be gratifying to know your neighbors are getting such cheap goods.

Prof. Cord, accompanied by his nephew, Roy Neal, left for Torrent Tuesday, where he took the train for Lexington, to be present at a meeting of the State C. W. B. M. held on Wednesday.

Dyspeptics cannot be long lived, because to live requires nourishment. Food is not nourishing until it is digested. A disordered stomach cannot digest food, it must have assistance. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests all kinds of food without aid from the stomach, allowing it to rest and regain its natural functions. Its elements are exactly the same as the natural digestive fluids and it simply can't help but do you good. H. F. PIERATT.

Why do red headed girls wear pink shirt waists? They do! Just watch and see if they don't.

Mr. Grosvener says he didn't say it. This leaves Chauncey Depew in sole possession of the third term idea.

Of course, John Bull holds the record in cricket. What good American cares for such a fool game!

Can't the powers compromise that Chinese indemnity on some washee-washee on the installment plan?

Dowie should have copyrighted his discovery that he is Elijah. A southern negro is now claiming to be the same thing.

But, after all didn't the Hon. "Hurry" Heath also run into the unwritten law when he named Mr. Hanna for the presidency.

Senator Elkins says that the senate is poor hatching ground for presidents. Still the vice-president isn't exactly in the senate, so to speak.

The coalmen have raised the price 25 cents a ton and are moving it up 10 cents more each month. Next winter is going to be cold, we suppose.

Despite the way on which the "Independence" was crowded off the course we may still console ourselves that there's many a slip betwixt cup and Lip-ton.

We suppose that Lord Salisbury thinks that Great Britain has gained enormously in prestige by the recent surrender of a lot of her crack troops to the Boers.

The Boers have done it again. After being utterly exterminated, they have come to sufficiently to capture 200 British, lots of stores and ammunition and two machine guns.

Some one has scored a failure in trying to interview Grover on the third term question. Some body should have given him a steer that Grover was strongly opposed even to second terms before his first election.

Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, says the question is now "Should the Constitution follow the flag?" in place of "Does it follow it?" The next election, he says, will be fought on that issue.

It is somewhat too unkind to insinuate, as one of our contemporaries does, that Admiral Sampson must be a Christian Scientist, because he destroyed the Spanish fleet, if at all, by "absent treatment."

Director Merriam of the census recently directed that his 3,000 clerks should all draw their salary after the close of business hours. Meanwhile he had his own brought to him by a clerk during office hours.

Mr. Evans says that he doesn't expect to retire from the office of pension commissioner, but Congressman Peters, of Kansas, is now on the way to Washington expecting to be named in Mr. Evans' place. Some one is sure to be disappointed—but you can wager it won't be the pension sharks.

"Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. Change of Schedule.

Effective June 30, 1901, there will be a slight change in time of Lexington & Eastern time-table, in order to give its patrons better service. Beginning with the above dates Nos. 1 and 3 will make connections at L. & E. Junction with the Chesapeake & Ohio R. R. for Mt. Sterling and Ashland. The morning train will leave Lexington at 7:40 instead of 7:45, and the train from Jackson will reach Lexington at 10:10 a. m., heretofore 10:15. Yours truly, T. R. MORGAN, Sol. Pass. Agt.

The bilious, tired, nervous man cannot successfully compete with his healthy rival. DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous pills for constipation, will remove the cause of your troubles. H. F. PIERATT.

For a man who "doesn't appreciate American newspapers," Mr. Pearson, of London, publishes the champion weekly of the world. Nine-tenths of its matter is "lifted" outright from American comic papers.

The latest comes from a distinguished republican who asserts that "The Cuban desire for independence is a genuine case of nervous disease." That's about what George III said of the American colonies.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders never cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, and S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores. Only 50 cts.

Minister Leishman thinks that the Sultan is about to pay up. To turn a pessimist into the most confirmed optimist, a few months in the United States legation at Constantinople seems to be all that is necessary.

The fifteenth annual session of the Kentucky Chautauqua will be held at Woodland Park, Lexington, Ky., June 26 to July 5. A splendid program has been arranged, that will surpass any yet given. Some of the most notable lecturers and entertainers in America have been engaged. A great musical program will be presented, and many new and special features. The detailed program will be mailed to any address, upon application to Chas. Scott, Business Manager, Lexington, Ky. td.
